The Christmas Spirit Is In the Air

The world's unselfish time is upon us. We need not remind you that the greatest happiness comes to ourselves when we make others happy with our gifts.

The value of a gift consists not in costliness or variety, but in the feelings of affection, or regard, or sympathy, or honor, which it is supposed to carry. It is time that both giver and receiver realized this. Too often the spirit of Christmas is utterly sacrificed in the contest between the desire to spend and the duty of refraining. For a gift to be worth the giving, no sacrifice of duty must have entered into it. A tiny flower given in love and simplicity is better than a rare and costly gem procured with worry, anxiety and doubt. When you give something to wear, you exhibit good sense, good taste and good judgment.

Bath Robes have come to be known among men as a mighty handy article of wearing apparel. They are becoming greater gift favorites each Yuletide season. This year we are offering a splendid selection of styles, both simple and elaborate. The high merit of the workmanship and the unusual worth of the materials are features quickly appreciated by the discerning. Prices, $3.50, 5.00 and 7.50.

Another practical gift is good Hosiery. He will think of you in the mornings when he puts them on and nights when he takes them off, and you'll be sure of his everlasting gratitude if they are a pair of our hose that it is almost impossible to wear out. Prices, 15c, 25c and 50c.

An especially large lot of Caps to pick from makes the selection of a Cap for a gift a pleasure. Many kinds in cloth and fur in every size. You can't make a mistake in giving Neckwear. Any man is always pleased to get new cravats, no matter how many he has.

Christmas shopping in our store is a source of pleasure and satisfaction to all who recognize the value of better grade articles to be bought as gifts.
